

The Light Beacon

It was originally part of the Airway Beacon Network. The beacon was located at San Marcus, TX. It became obsolete when a new beacon was installed New Braunfels, TX. Hans Hannemann and friends acquired it, and modified it for the aerodrome beacon. It remained in service at T82 until it was retired in 2002.