

Local Non-Judicial Candidate/Officeholder Packet

This packet is being provided by the County Elections Administrator to supply you with the basic information that any candidate would need to know.

Before becoming a candidate, we urge you to contact the Texas Ethics Commission for information on campaign contribution reports, the appointment of a campaign treasurer, and personal financial statements that you may be required to file.

The Texas Ethics Commission will serve as your authority on how to run your campaign.

“Local” Filers do not file with the Texas Ethics Commission.

If running for a County office you would file for a place on the ballot with the Party Chair of your choice. All other forms would be filed with the County Elections Administrator.

If running for a Local Political Subdivisions you would file all forms with the Subdivision Authority.

Please file forms with your local filing authority accordingly.

For Major Party Candidates:

In order to run with a major political party, a candidate must file an application with the county or state party chair and pay a filing fee. A candidate also has the option of filing a petition in lieu of the filing fee. Application and petition forms are available through local party officials or the Texas Secretary of State. The regular filing period for the primary election begins on the 30th day before the date of the regular filing deadline, which is 6 p.m. on the second Monday in December of an odd-numbered year.

Candidate Information Sheet

In order to become a candidate for a local office, a person must file an application with the County Chair (TEC 172.022), and pay a filing fee (TEC 172.024). A candidate also has the option of filing a petition in lieu of the filing fee (TEC 172.025). The filing period begins on November 9th, 2019 and ends on December 9th, 2019 at 6 p.m. If you receive more than 50% of the votes cast in the primary election your name will appear on the general election ballot in November. If you receive 50% or less of the votes cast in the primary election, the two candidates with the highest number of votes will enter into a runoff election to determine who will be the party nominee for the general election in November.

NOTE: Prior to announcing candidacy, receiving campaign contributions and making any campaign expenditures one must file an Appointment of Campaign Treasure with the Gillespie County Elections Department.
