Submit Development Permit Determination Form, site plan, and project narritive to floodplain@gillespiecounty.org
Form is reviewed by the County
If further permitting is required, a Submittal Checklist and Development Permit Application will be returned to the applicant
If further permitting is NOT required, the Form will be returned indicating a Development Permit Application is not required
Applicant returns Submittal Checklist, Submittal Documents, and Development Permit Application to floodplain@gillespiecounty.org
If the permit application is administratively complete, the application is reviewed and comments are returned until all comments are resolved
If the permit application is NOT administratively complete, the application is returned without review with a list of missing or incomplete submittal items
Development Permit Application approval; construction may commence if all other applicable permits are received and approved
If applicable, the Applicant must submit completion documents as described in the Ordinance